

FOURTH INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM: ICF EDUCATION

6 & 7 APRIL 2019 KUWAIT CITY, KUWAIT

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

This Fourth International Symposium: ICF Education builds on the first held in Finland in 2015, the second in South Africa in 2017 and the third in Hamburg in 2018. The aim is to bring together people from around the world who are teaching about or using the International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF) in health statistics and administration, clinical practice and education such as in interprofessional education, research and product development.

Collaboration and participation from all stakeholders are important. All participants are expected to share their experiences (whether they present an abstract or not) and learn from each other. Participation is required! Accepted presentations will be posted on the www.ICFEducation.org website.

SYMPOSIUM THEME

ICF: Measurement for better participation

SYMPOSIUM TOPICS

1. ICF-related tools to evaluate functioning

The relationship between the ICF and assessment with tools such as surveys, standardised measures, profession specific tests and self-reports, for example is often a source of questions from new comers to ICF. Abstracts illustrating the teaching methods to respond to these questions are welcome.

2. Educating on ICF

Now that the ICF is nearing 20 years of age there have been many examples of introducing the ICF to health professionals and student health professionals. Examples of curricula and methods of teaching ICF are encouraged. Also examples of education for other audiences, such as health policy makers and administrators, statisticians, and people with disabilities, carers and disabled people's organisations.

ICF-based evidence informing policies
 Under this topic examples of how ICF based information has informed policy development and the impact of the policies on populations are encouraged.

PLAN YOUR VISIT

KUWAIT CITY

Located in the north-east corner of the Arabian Peninsula. The flat, sandy Arabian Desert covers most of Kuwait. Kuwait is a constitutional sovereign state with a semi-democratic political system. Kuwait has a high-income economy backed by the world's sixth largest oil reserves. The Kuwaiti dinar is the highest valued currency in the world.

Tourists, who look forward to a relaxed entry into the Muslim world, can enter Kuwait, and wander around souks, mosques, sandy traces of ancient Bedouin days, excellent museums, a corniche ornamented with combed beaches and extravagant restaurants, modern shopping complexes and marinas, long and lazy retreats, and new beach resorts. But, behind the extravagant richness, lies the traditional values and warm Arabian hospitality.

Foreign workers constituting 80 percent of the labour force. Kuwaiti nationals constitute 1.4 million of the 4.6 million population in the country, and they get to enjoy the benefits of a generous social welfare system that guarantees employment, housing, education and healthcare.

TRANSPORT

Kuwait has cheap and well spread transport system with local and intercity buses that operate round the clock. Taxis charge a flat rate between the city and airport. Local taxis without meters are available for getting around. To hire a car, one must have an International Driving Permit.

VISA REQUIREMENT

When you arrive, you'll need to ensure your passport is valid for at least three months beyond your intended departure date.

PRESENTATION FORMATS

The Scientific Committee may accept the abstract for presentation, in English, in one of the following formats:

ORAL PRESENTATIONS

The topic is delivered verbally, generally accompanied by visual information in the form of PowerPoint slides. The talks are 20 minutes in length.

POSTER PRESENTATIONS

The topic is delivered using brief written statements and graphic materials, such as charts, figures and photographs displayed on a poster board. Presenters have the opportunity to discuss their work with symposium participants during designated times in the programme. The dimensions of the poster should be A0 paper size (portrait orientation) (841 x 1189 mm / 33.1 x 46.8 in).

Abstract authors may specify their preferred format. It should be noted that there is very limited time during the symposium for oral presentations. Abstracts not selected for platform presentation will be offered the opportunity to present their work as a poster.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Abstracts will be reviewed by the Symposium Organising Committee. The following principles will be used in selecting the abstracts for presentation.

- The abstract addresses at least one of the topics of the symposium
- The content of the abstract is clear and logical

CONSENT, PERMISSIONS AND COPYRIGHT

In submitting an abstract you must confirm that:

- You accept responsibility for the accuracy of the submitted abstract and understand that the content cannot be modified or corrected after the submission deadline and that it will be published exactly as submitted
- All co-authors are aware of and agree to the content of the abstract and support the data presented
- You accept responsibility as the contact person for all correspondence about the abstract and to share information with all authors about its status
